Limit Tab

What Is A Limit Tab

A limit tab is a tab with a predetermined total limit, this is useful when you already know the amount you want to spend behind the bar.

How It Works

You let us know the limit you want on your tab. If the limit you set is final, then the bar serves ‘free’ drinks to your guests until the tab reaches close to that limit without exceeding it. If you are not sure about the amount you want to spend, then you can set a smaller limit. Once that limit is almost done, you will be updated and you can decide either to extend the limit or not.

No-Limit Tabs

What Is A No-Limit Tab

The no-limit tab is a tab with no total limit, this is useful when you want to pay for all of your guest's drinks.

How It Works

You let us know that you want a no-limit tab. Once we reach the end of the night, we will let you know the total amount reached.

Value Limit Of Drinks

The value of drinks is used in both limit and no-limit tabs. It is a parameter in order to control the flow of how fast or slow your tab reached the limit, a higher value might mean that the tab will be filled faster, whereas a smaller value might mean that the tab will fill slower. If chosen to use the value limit, then we suggest a value equal to 7. This means that your guests will be able to get any kind of drink that costs 7 euros or less. Of course they might take something more expensive and pay the difference. The value of 7 is suggested because it includes all standard drinks, beers, wines, soft drinks and excludes more expensive drinks like premium drinks, ultra premium drinks cocktails. If you would like to use tokens, think of the tokens as the value limit, each token would have a value and would not exceed that value.

Example Of How To Calculate Your Tab In Steps

1. Categorize your guests into children, male adults and female adults.
2. How much and what does each of these categories drink?
3. Children consume an average of 2 soft drinks depending their age, so if you multiply the number of children with the price of 2 soft drinks (4.6) you have an average of how much the children will consume from your tab for the whole night.
4. To calculate the male or female adults you do the same

Example

You are a group of 30 (10 children, 10 females and 10 males). Children drink 2 soft drinks each (4.6), males drink 5 pints each (22.5), females drink 3 Gin Tonics each (21)) an estimate would be $10*4.6+ 10*22.5+10*21=46+225+210=481$ [Please note that the numbers mentioned are different for each group, a group of 50 might drink less than a group of 20.

Serving And Portions

Our portions in drinks are 40ml for single (British double) and 80ml for double (British quadruple). Our drinks are categorised in Standard, Premium and Ultra Premium. For the Standard drinks the price is 6.5 for a single and 13 for a double, For the Premium drinks the price is 8.5 for a single and 17 for a double. For the Ultra premium the price is 9 for a single and 18 for a double. Gins are 0.5 more expensive than their categories, this means that a Standard Gin would be 7, a Premium Gin would be 9 and an Ultra Premium Gin would be 9.5 for a single and double for a double. The reason why doubles are double the price is to have your guests getting single drinks so they don't get drunk during your wedding day (our single is already a British double). Soft drinks are included in the price. Exceptions are fresh orange juice and fresh mush of fruits (Strawberry, Mango, Green Apple, Raspberry) which all are 0.5 on top of the price. For example if you order a Beefeater strawberry Gin the price would be $7+0.5=7.5$

Buckets Of Beer

The buckets of beer are not charged per bucket, but per beer. Every bucket fits 4-5 beers. This means that if you want buckets with Amstel then your price for every bucket of beer would be equal to the price of 4 Amstel. It is possible to have bottles of Mythos in buckets but not in the bar since there is Pint of Mythos and the price is the same, which means a bottle [500ml] of Mythos would cost equal to a Pint of Mythos (4.5).
